LONDON, May 14.

The City of London's ADDRESS to His MAJESTY.

SIR,

YOUR Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, deſire to be permitted to pay their humble Duty to your Majeſty, and to expreſs their grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's gracious and benevolent Attention to the Welfare of your People, in relieving them from the increaſing Burthens of a long and expenſive, though glorious and ſucceſsful War.

They enter not into a particular Conſideration of the national Advantages reſulting from the Treaty of Peace which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to conclude;——theſe have been ſubmitted to a conſtitutional Examination; but they beg Leave thus publickly to declare to your Majeſty their entire Acquieſcence in a Meaſure which your Majeſty's Councils, and the great Council of the Nation, have ſeen Reaſon to approve. And this they have thought it their Duty to do at this Time, when they have with Concern obſerved a Spirit of Faction unhappily ariſing, and are apprehenſive their Silence might be interpreted an Encouragement of Practices, which their dutiful Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government leads them to deteſt and abhor.

They further beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as Magiſtrates, to whom the executive Power of the Government of the City of London is intruſted, it ſhall be their conſtant Endeavour to maintain and preſerve domeſtic Tranquility, Order, good Government, and that true and perfect Liberty which has its Foundation in Obedience to the Laws, and of which Licentiouſneſs, though it often aſſumes the Name, is, in this Country, the only Enemy.

By a Conduct ſo conformable to your Royal Example, they preſume to hope they ſhall intitle themſelves to the Continuance of your Majeſty's Protection and Favour.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I RETURN you my ſincere Thanks for this Addreſs, and for the Satiſfaction you expreſs in the Succeſs of my Endeavours to reſtore the public Peace.

I receive with great Pleaſure the Aſſurances you give me, of your Abhorrence and Deteſtation of thoſe Factions and licentious Practices, which, alone, can endanger our preſent happy Settlement, after the Concluſion of Peace with all our Foreign Enemies.

Your Reſolution to ſupport, in Oppoſition thereto, the true conſtitutional Liberty of theſe Kingdoms, is highly acceptable to me.

The City of London may depend upon my conſtant Favour and Protection.

St. James's. May 18. This day a moſt numerous body of the merchants and traders of the city of London waited on his Majeſty; and being introduced to his Majeſty by the Earl Gower, Lord Chamberlain of the Houſhold, Edmund Boehm, Eſq; made their compliments in the following addreſs:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY.

The humble ADDRESS of the Merchants and Traders of the City of London.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Merchants and Traders of the City of London, inviolably attached, by every Tie of Duty and Gratitude, to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, beg Leave to return your Majeſty our humble Thanks, for the conſtant and effectual Support and Protection we enjoyed during the late War; and, at the ſame Time, moſt ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs of your truly paternal and humane Endeavours to reſtore to your People, and to Europe in general, the Bleſſings of Peace.

Through the Care and Attention of Government, the national Commerce, amidſt the Tumults and Dangers of the moſt extended War this Country was ever engaged in, has been carried on with a Degree of Security and Succeſs beyond Example: This, however, did not lead us to forget the adverſe Accidents to which the Nature of War continually expoſed us, nor to ceaſe wiſhing for that Stability and Permanency, which Peace alone could give.

We have now the Satiſfaction to ſee a War, founded in Juſtice and Neceſſity, proſecuted with Vigour and Glory, at length concluded, on Terms of real and ſolid Advantage, by a Treaty of Peace, every where marked with that Moderation and Equity which afford the faireſt Proſpect of its Continuance.

With Hearts, therefore, full of the higheſt Senſe of your Majeſty's Attention to the general Welfare of your Subjects, as well as to their commercial Intereſts, and animated with equal Zeal for your Perſon, and Abhorrence of all Diſreſpect to your Dignity, we aſſure your Majeſty, that nothing in our Power ſhall ever be wanting that may, in any Degree, contribute to render your Majeſty's Reign eaſy and happy over a loyal and grateful People.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I RECEIVE, with very particular Satiſfaction, from ſo numerous and deſerving a Body of my Subjects, theſe dutiful Aſſurances of their Zeal for my Perſon, and Government; theſe cordial Expreſſions of their Abhorrence of all Diſreſpect to my Crown, and Dignity.

The Welfare of my People, and the Security of the flouriſhing and extenſive Commerce of my Kingdoms, have ever been, and ever will be, the invariable Objects of my Care, and Attention; Theſe invaluable Bleſſings, I truſt, will be rendered ſtable and permanent by the Peace which I have concluded; whereby vaſt Countries are added to the Britiſh Empire, the Improvement of which muſt produce ſolid and laſting Advantages to all my Subjects.

The Merchants, and Traders, of the City of London, may firmly rely on my conſtant Protection, and Favour; and on my ſteady Reſolution ever to ſupport them in the full and free Enjoyment of their Rights, Liberties, and Privileges.

They were all moſt graciouſly received; and had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

There were upwards of 928 Merchants that ſigned the Addreſs.

The Bells of St. Michael's, Cornhill, rang all Day, on Account of the Merchants going to addreſs the King.

May 19. Yeſterday it was reported, that ſuch a Coalition among the Leaders of the contending Parties would ſpeedily take place, as would give Satiſfaction to every one.

We hear that the Duke of Devonſhire and Earl of Herdwicke are both coming into Places again, and all Parties are endeavouring at a Reconciliation.

We hope there is no Truth in a Report that a certain unpopular Nobleman has been ſhot at.

We hear that a great Number of new Frigates, from 20 to 30 Guns, are ordered to be built at Deptford and Woolwich.

The Demand for Gold, in Coin, is ſo great, that the Jews now give 4l. 2s. per oz. ſo that in a ſhort Time we may expect a greater Scarcity of money in this Kingdom, than at preſent is thought of.

May 21. In the Craftſman and Weekly Journal, publiſhed this Day, are the Letters that paſſed between the Right Hon. the Earl Talbot and John Wilkes, Eſq; previous to their Duel.

They have an Account at Paris, from Marſeilles, that the Troops which had ſurrendered the Iſland of Minorca to the Engliſh had arrived there.

They write from Liſbon, that Wheat was plenty there.

Mr. Wilkes is carrying on eleven proſecutions againſt the Secretaries of State, the under Secretaries, the Meſſengers, &c.

We are told, that a few Days ago a Surgeon went into Newgate, and ſaid he had his Majeſty's Pardon, and an Annuity for Life, for any Convict under Sentence of Death, who would ſuffer his Leg to be cut off; a Propoſal which none but a poor Sailor thought proper to accept. The Surgeon then withdrawing, told him he ſhould hear farther. The Reaſon of this Requeſt, we are informed, is, that the Surgeon has got a ſpecific Powder for the immediate Stoppage of Blood, which requires no Aſſiſtance from any other Expedient commonly uſed in Amputations, and wants to try the Experiment.

CHARLES-TOWN, (in South-Carolina) June 18.

A Report prevails (on what Foundation we know not) that there are Letters in Town from London, of a late Date, adviſing, that the Parliament of Great-Britain would ſoon take into their Conſideration the Police of the ſeveral American Governments dependent on the Mother-Country, and by Act eſtabliſh a Form that would effectually obviate all the Inconveniences which had ariſen, or might ariſe, from Imperfections in either, and oblige them to be unanimous in all Points tending to their general Good.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.

On Friday laſt an Expreſs arrived here from Carliſle, by whom we received the following Advices, viz.

Extract of a Letter from Carliſle, dated July 12, 1763.

"I embrace this firſt Leiſure, ſince Yeſterday Morning, to tranſmit you a brief Account of our preſent State of Affairs here, which indeed is very diſtreſſing; every Day almoſt affording ſome freſh Object to awaken the Compaſſion, alarm the Fears, or kindle into Reſentment and Vengeance, every ſenſible Breaſt, while flying Families, obliged to abandon Houſe and Poſſeſſion, to ſave their Lives by an haſty Eſcape; mourning Widows, bewailing their Huſbands ſurprized and maſſacred by ſavage Rage; tender Parents, lamenting the Fruit of their own Bodies, cropt in the very Bloom of Life by a barbarous Hand; with Relations and Acquaintances, pouring out Sorrow for murdered Neighbours and Friends, preſent a varied Scene of mingled Diſtreſs.

"When for ſome time, after ſtriking at Bedford, the Indians appeared quiet, nor ſtruck any other Part of our Frontiers, it became the prevailing Opinion, that our Forts, and the Communication, were ſo peculiarly the Object of their Attention, that, till at leaſt after Harveſt, there was little Proſpect of Danger to our Inhabitants over the Hills; and to diſſent from this generally received Sentiment, was political Hereſy, and attributed to Timidity rather than Judgment, till too early Conviction has decided the Point in the following Manner.

"On Sunday Morning, the 10th Inſtant, about Nine or Ten o'Clock, at the Houſe of one William White, on Juniata, between 30 and 40 Miles hence, there being in ſaid Houſe four Men, and a Lad, the Indians came ruſhing upon them, and ſhot White at the Door, juſt ſtepping out to ſee what the Noiſe meant. Our People then pulled in White, and ſhut the Door; but obſerving, thro' a Window, the Indians ſetting Fire to the Houſe, they attempted to force their Way out at the Door; but the firſt that ſtepped out being ſhot down, they drew him in, and again ſhut the Door: After which, one attempting an Eſcape out of a Window on the Loft, was ſhot through the Head, and the Lad wounded in the Arm. The only one now remaining (William Riddle) broke a Hole thro' the Roof of the Houſe, and an Indian, who ſaw him looking out, alledging he was about to fire on him, withdrew, which afforded Riddle an Opportunity of making his Eſcape.—The Houſe, with the other four in it was burnt down, as one M'Machen informs, who was coming to it, not ſuſpecting Indians, and was by them fired at, and ſhot thro' the Shoulder, but made his Eſcape.——The ſame Day, about Dinner-Time, at about a Mile and an Half from (ſaid) White's, at the Houſe of Robert Campbell, ſix Men being in the Houſe, as they were dining, three Indians ruſhed in at the Door, and after firing among them, and wounding ſome, they tomahawked, in an Inſtant, one of the Men; whereupon one George Dodds (one of the Company) ſtepping back into a Room, and taking down a Rifle, ſhot an Indian through the Body, who was juſt preſenting his Piece to ſhoot him; The Indian, being mortally wounded, ſtaggered, and letting his Gun fall, was carried off by three others. Dodds, with one or two more, getting upon the Loft, broke the Roof in order to eſcape, and looking out, ſaw one of the Company (Stephen Jefferies) running, but very ſlow, by Reaſon of a Wound in the Breaſt, and an Indian purſuing; and it is thought he could not eſcape, nor have we heard of him ſince, ſo that it is paſt Diſpute he alſo was murdered.—The firſt that attempted getting out of the Loft was fired at, and drew back; another attempting, was ſhot dead; and of the Six, Dodds only made his Eſcape.—The ſame Day, about Duſk, about five or ſix Miles up Tuſcorara, and about 28 or 30 Miles hence, they murdered one William Anderſon, together with a Boy and Girl, all in one Houſe.—At White's were ſeen at leaſt five, ſome ſay eight or ten Indians; and at Campbell's, about the ſame Number.—On Monday, the 11th, a Party of about 24 went over from the upper Part of Sherman's Valley, to ſee how Matters were.—Another Party, of 12 or 13, went over from the lower Part of ſaid Valley; and Col. John Armſtrong, with Thomas Wilſon, Eſq; and a Party of between 30 and 40, from this Town, to reconnoitre, and aſſiſt in burying the Dead.

"Of the firſt and third Parties we have heard nothing yet, but of the Party of 12, ſix are come in, and inform, that they paſſed through ſeveral Places in Tuſcorara, and ſaw the Houſes in Flames, or burnt entirely down: That the Grain that had been reaped the Indians burnt in the Shocks, and had ſet the Fences on Fire where the Grain was unreaped: That the Hogs had fallen upon, and mangled ſeveral of the dead Bodies: That the ſaid Company of twelve, ſuſpecting Danger, durſt not ſtay to bury the Dead: That after they had returned over the Tuſcorara Mountain, about one or two Miles on this Side of it, and about 18 or 20 from hence, they were fired on by a large Party of Indians, ſuppoſed about 30, and were obliged to fly: That two, viz. John Graham, and William Robinſon, are certainly killed, and four more miſſing, who, it is thought, have fallen into the Hands of the Enemy, as they appeared ſlow in Flight, moſt probably wounded, and the Savages purſued with Violence.—What farther Miſchief has been done, we have not yet heard, but expect every Day and Hour, ſome more Meſſages of melancholy News. On hearing of the above Defeat, we ſent out this Morning another Party of 30, or upwards, commanded by our High Sheriff, Mr. Dunning, and Mr. William Lyon, to go in Queſt of the Enemy, or fall in with, and reinforce, our other Parties.—There are alſo a Number gone out from about three or four Miles below this, ſo that we now have over the Hills upwards of 80 or 90 Volunteers ſcouring the Woods. The Inhabitants of Sherman's Valley, Tuſcorara, &c. are all come over, and the People of this Valley, near the Mountain, are beginning to move in, ſo that in a few Days there will be ſcarcely an Houſe inhabited North of Carliſle. Many of our People are greatly diſtreſſed through want of Arms and Ammunition, and Numbers of thoſe beat off their Places, have hardly Money enough to purchaſe a Pound of Powder.

"Our Women and Children, I apprehend, muſt move downwards, if the Enemy proceed. To-day a Britiſh Vengeance begins to riſe in the Breaſts of our Men.——One of them that fell from among the twelve, as he was juſt expiring, ſaid to one of his Fellows, Here, take my Gun, and kill the firſt Indian you ſee, and all ſhall be well."

Extract of another Letter from Carliſle, July 13.

"Laſt Night Col. Armſtrong returned. He left the Party, who purſued further, and found ſeveral dead, whom they buried in the beſt Manner they could, and are now all returned in.—From what appears, the Indians are travelling from one Place to another, along the Valley, burning the Farms, and deſtroying all the People they meet with.—This Day gives an Account of ſix more being killed in the Valley, ſo that ſince laſt Sunday Morning to this Day, 12 o'Clock, we have a pretty authentic Account of the Number ſlain being Twenty-five, and four or five wounded.—The Colonel, Mr. Wilſon, and Mr. Alricks, are now on the Parade, endeavouring to raiſe another Party, to go out and ſuccour the Sheriff and his Party, conſiſting of 50 Men, which marched Yeſterday, and hope they will be able to ſend off immediately Twenty good Men.—The People here, I aſſure you, want nothing but a good Leader, and a little Encouragement, to make a very good Defence."

And our Advices, received ſince the above, ſay, That the Sheriff's Party had returned: That about 18 or 20 Miles from Carliſle, they fell in with a Number of Indians at a Houſe, and ſhot down one of them; upon which the others took to the Fields, when our People purſued, and knocked down two or three more of the Enemy, but though they followed for ſome Time, they could not come up with them, nor find one of thoſe that were wounded. Two of the Sheriff's Men, it is ſaid, were likewiſe wounded, one of which, we hear, is ſince dead of his Wounds.

Extract of a Letter from Paxton, July 8.

"Three Indians came down the River late laſt Night, with Intelligence. They bring an Account of two Nations, the Senecas and Cayugas declaring War againſt the Engliſh, and joining the Indians to the Weſtward; and that the Accounts they have from the Ohio are, that they have deſtroyed all the Forts there, except Fort Pitt; that they expect to do that in a little Time, and afterwards to march in a large Body to the Weſt Branch of Suſquehannah, and from thence to come by Water, in a Body of 900 Men, to attack Fort Auguſta, which they likewiſe expect to reduce; and then to march with that Body down the Country."

As what follows ſeems to be wrote with a truly [illegible] and benevolent Intention, we chearfully inſert it, not doubting but it will anſwer the Expectations of its worthy Author.

IT appears, by many Accounts, that the Diſtreſſes of our Frontier Inhabitants, who are driven from their Dwellings, through Fear of the Savage Indians, are exceedingly great. Many from Juniata, and other Places near the quehannah, fled from Danger, and brought their Families, and little elſe, down the River in Canoes. Some eſcaped by Land in almoſt as great Diſtreſs, having nothing to ſupport them but a few Cattle, for which they can hardly find Range in the Inner Parts of the County, where they fled for Shelter. Their Neighbours, among whom they reſide, muſt ſuffer greatly, and be oppreſſed, while they ſtrive to accommodate ſuch Numbers as crowd in among them. They cannot ſee any of them periſh for Want, while they are able to relieve them. Above a Thouſand Families are driven from their Houſes and Habitations, and all the Comforts and Conveniencies of Life. Of theſe a great Number are ſo very poor, as to have neither Money nor Credit to purchaſe the Neceſſaries of Life. Many Farmers on our Frontiers, and in other Places, live comfortably, who, for many Months in the Year, can command no Money, and as ſoon as ſuch Perſons are driven from their Plantations, they are poor and diſtreſſed beyond Expreſſion. Many of theſe very Families that now ſuffer, were a few Years ago expoſed to the ſame Loſſes and Diſtreſſes. They loſt all their worldly Subſtance, and ſome their deareſt Friends and Relatives. They were obliged to ſeek a Shelter among us, and endured Poverty and Hardſhips for ſome Years. They gladly returned to their forſaken Habitations as ſoon as there was any Proſpect of Safety; and many of them, with the Help of Friends, or even burdened with Debts, were ſcarce able to begin the World anew; how hard then and diſcouraging is their Condition, to be again reduced to extreme Poverty, and all the Dangers of an Indian War? They are Men, and we ſhould, for this Reaſon, pity their Diſtreſſes; they are our Chriſtian Brethren; they are our Fellow Subjects; their Diſtreſſes are our Diſtreſſes; for they are a Part of this flouriſhing Province; all theſe tender Connections call forth our Sympathy, and Bowels of Compaſſion. It is our Intereſt as well as our Duty to encourage them to ſtay in Cumberland County; or even to return to their forſaken Dwellings, if it can be done in Safety. For if that County be deſerted, where ſhall we make a Stand? Shall Lancaſter or this City be the Frontiers of this Province? Our Governor and Aſſembly have granted Men for their Protection, and it is to be hoped the Charity of good Chriſtians will not be wanting to enable the moſt needy and diſtreſſed to find the Neceſſaries of Life, until we ſee how theſe Calamities will end. Our excellent King, and the Engliſh Government, will never oppreſs nor do what is unjuſt, even to the moſt barbarous and ſavage Nations, and if reaſonable Terms will not ſatisfy them, we are able to correct their Inſolence, and bring them to Reaſon; ſo that we have Cauſe to truſt in God, that this Storm will ſoon blow over."

"We are informed that Mr. ADAM HOOPS, in Compaſſion to theſe Poor Sufferers, ordered Fifty Pounds to be put into proper Hands to be diſtributed among them: And the Society for the Relief of poor and diſtreſſed Preſbyterian Miniſters, and their Widows and Children, on the 23th Inſtant, ſent One Hundred and Fifty Pounds to ſome Miniſters and Gentlemen in and near Carliſle, and ordered it to be diſtributed, without Partiality, or any Regard to religious Diſtinctions, among ſuch of theſe Sufferers as were unable to ſupport themſelves and their Families; but as theſe Sums are not ſufficient, it is hoped, from the well known Charity of this Province, that others will have Compaſſion, and contrive Ways to relieve theſe Diſtreſſes."

ANNAPOLIS, July 28.

Laſt Sunday in a Thunder Guſt at Cheſnut-Ridge, in Baltimore-County, there fell Hail as large as ſmall Bullets.

The ſame Day a Sloop belonging to the Elk-Ridge Iron Works, was overſet at the Mouth of South River, but the People were all happily ſaved.

Saturday Evening laſt, as a Veſſel was on her Paſſage from Cheſter-Town for this Place, one of her Crew fell overboard and was Drowned.

To Mr. JONAS GREEN, at Annapolis.

Frederick-Town, July 19, 1763.

EVERY Day, for ſome Time paſt, has offered the melancholy Scene of poor diſtreſſed Families driving downwards, through this Town, with their Effects, who have deſerted their Plantations, for Fear of falling into the cruel Hands of our Savage Enemies, now daily ſeen in the Woods. And never was Panic more general or forcible than that of the Back Inhabitants, whoſe Terrors, at this Time, exceed what followed on the Defeat of General Braddock, when the Frontiers lay open to the Incurſions of both French and Indians. Whilſt Conococheague Settlement ſtands firm, we ſhall think ourſelves in ſome Sort of Security from their Inſults here. But ſhould the Inhabitants there give Way, you would ſoon ſee your City, and the lower Counties, crowded with Objects of Compaſſion, as the Flight would, in that Caſe, become general.—Numbers of thoſe who have betaken themſelves to Forts, as well as thoſe who have actually fled, have entirely loſt their Crops, or turned in their own Cattle and Hogs to devour the Produce, in Hopes of finding them again, in better Condition, ſhould it hereafter appear ſafe for them to return.—The Seaſon has been remarkably fine, and the Harveſt in general afforded the moſt promiſing Appearance of Plenty and Goodneſs, that has been known for many Years. But alas! how diſmal an Alteration of the Proſpect!—Many who expected to have ſold and ſupplied the Neceſſities of others, now want for themſelves, and ſee their warmeſt Hopes defeated, the Fruits of their honeſt Induſtry ſnatched from them by the mercileſs Attacks of theſe Bloodthirſty Barbarians, whoſe Treatment of ſuch unhappy Wretches as fall into their Hands, is accompanied with Circumſtances of infernal Fury, too horrid and ſhocking for human Nature to dwell upon, even in Imagination.—We were ſo ſenſible of the Importance of Conococheague Settlement, both as a Bulwark and Supply to this Neighbourhood, that on repeated Notice of their growing Diſtreſs, Captain Butler, on Wedneſday laſt, called the Town Company together, who appeared under Arms on the Court-Houſe Green, with great Unanimity.—Juſt as the Drum beat To Arms, we had the agreeable Satisfaction of ſeeing a Waggon, ſent up by his Excellency (whoſe tender Care for the Security of the Province, raiſed Sentiments of the higheſt Gratitude in the Breaſt of every one preſent) loaded with Powder and Lead: Articles of the greateſt Importance, at this critical Juncture, when the whole Country had been drained of thoſe neceſſary Articles, by the Diligence of our Indian Traders, who had bought up the Whole for the Supply of our Enemies, to be returned, as we have dearly experienced, in Death and Deſolation upon us.—A Subſcription was then ſet on Foot, and chearfully entered into, in Conſequence of which, twenty ſtout young Men immediately enliſted, under Mr. Peter Groſh, to march immediately to the Aſſiſtance of the Back Inhabitants, and with other Volunteers, already there raiſed, to cover the Reapers, in Hopes of ſecuring the Crops.—Had not the Governor's Supply arrived ſo ſeaſonably, it was doubted whether the whole Town could have furniſhed Ammunition ſufficient for that ſmall Party, Half of which marched backwards, in high Spirits, on Thurſday, and the Remainder on Friday Morning.—And on Sunday, Subſcriptions were taken in the ſeveral Congregations in Town, for ſending up farther Aſſiſtance.——On Sunday Afternoon we had the Pleaſure of ſeeing Mr. Michael Creſap arrive in Town with Mokoſins on his Legs, taken from an Indian whom he killed and ſcalped, being one of thoſe who ſhot down Mr. Wilder, the Circumſtances of whoſe much lamented Murder, and the Succeſs of Col. Creſap's Family, you no Doubt have received from other Hands.—Money has been chearfully contributed in our Town, towards the Support of Ten Men to be added to Col. Creſap's preſent Force, as we look upon the Preſervation of the Old Town to be of great Importance to us, and a proper Check to the Progreſs of the Savages—But notwithſtanding our preſent Efforts to keep the Enemy at a Diſtance, and thereby ſhelter the whole Province, our Inhabitants are poor, our Men diſperſed, and without a Detachment from below, it is to be feared, we muſt give Way, and the Inundation break in upon the lower Counties.
